

Senior Consultant

Ruth Williams

Orlando, Florida

Ruth Williams has been helping people take charge of their lives and achieve their personal and professional goals for 30 years at FranklinCovey. Aside from 11 years teaching at the high school and college levels, her career has been spent in training and development with clients in a variety of industries.

Ruth is the author of five books, and has a bachelor's degree in English education, as well as a master's degree in psychology/counseling. She is a certified life coach and the mother of 19 children.

Highlights

43rd Annual Women's Achievement Award in Communications in 2015

Author of 5 books

30-year career with FranklinCovey helping people find their voice and live their view of greatness

12 marathons run including New York and Boston

19 children; 14 adopted from different countries

Education & Certifications

- B.A. English
- M.A. Psychology
- DISC Certified Facilitator
- IDI Certified Facilitator
- Certified High Performance Coach

What learners say about Ruth...

"Ruth was awesome! She made the work session fun while providing useful information."

"Ruth is an excellent trainer. She was clear, gave great positive feedback, and also gave suggestions on areas to improve. She was highly organized; had the timing down."

"Great communication skills and kept everyone engaged with use of video, pauses, and clear break periods. Was also patient during times of technological difficulties."