

Senior Consultant

Sarah Bacerra

San Diego, California

Sarah Bacerra is an inclusion strategist, accomplished facilitator, and learning experience designer, leveraging cutting-edge learning practices to build organizational cultures of curiosity, belonging, and innovation. Sarah has had the privilege of working with some of the world's leading organizations, supporting them by way of leadership program development and facilitation, executive coaching, and process design. Her experience spans the technology, government, media, hospitality, and non-profit sectors.

Going beyond traditional, superficial means, Sarah is laser focused on the intentional architecture of cultures and systems that move us towards achieving pay equity, gender parity, and racial justice.

She also serves on the Advisory Council for The Center for Respectful Leadership and is an Executive Board Member for Women's March San Diego.

Education & Certifications

- B.S. Communications
- M.S. Organizational Management
- DISC Certified Facilitator
- Certified High-Performance Coach
- Kirkpatrick Four Levels® Evaluation Certification - Bronze Level
- Qualified Administrator, Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI)

What learners say about Sarah...

"Sarah was AMAZING! She was so upbeat, smiling and so very knowledgeable. She showed interest in what we had to seemed to really care and liked sharing the material."

"Sarah has a welcoming presence and her facilitation skills and knowledge of the material made for an engaging session--the time flew by! Thank you, Sarah!"

Highlights

2021 recipient of the Inclusion 1st Ally Award from the Inclusion 1st™ Project

Recognized as a 2020 Woman of Influence by SD Metro

Community organizer and champion for women's and LGBTQ+ rights

Lover of improv and all things comedy

Mom to two changemakers